June, one of the most popular months of the year with the brides, was ushered in yesterday with a number of brilliant weddings. To mention them all would fill columns, but there were at least half a dozen of unusual interest to society. Among the brides were Miss Charlotte Delafield, Miss Marion Tiffany, Miss Helen Dudgeon, Miss Beatrice Berrien Nelson, Miss Mildred Pauline Sinclair, Miss Millie Jean Horton and Miss Dorothy Mae Delafield, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Livingston Delafield, was married to Robert Curdsey Marsh, in the Church of the Heavenly Host, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The bride was attractively decorated with flowers, palms and ferns, and the ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. Dr. Herbert Shipman. Suffragan Bishop-elect, a small reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delafield, 20 West Fifty-eighth Street.

The bride has taken an active part in the suffrage movement, as well as in the League of Women Voters. Last December she was appointed private secretary to F. H. La Guardia, President of the Board of Aldermen. During the war she drove a camouflete in the French front. She is a member of the Colonial Dames and a direct descendant of Morgan Lewis, one of the early governors of New York.

Mr. Marsh was a member of the state Legislature in 1916 and 1917, but resigned to enter the army, from which he received his honorable discharge at the time of the armistice, with the rank of major of field artillery. He was graduated from Harvard and is practicing law in this city. He is a son of late Dr. and Mrs. Elias J. Marsh.

Ernest E. Wheeler served as Mr. Marsh's best man, and the ushers were Arthur B. Lapley, Walter S. Gifford, Henry B. Curran, President of the Borough of Manhattan; Arthur Ruhl, Lewis L. Delafield Jr., brother of the bride; Clarence H. Fay, T. Newell Pfeiffer and W. Ross Proctor.

The wedding of Miss Tiffany, who is a daughter by a former marriage, of Mrs. Henry Fletcher Godfrey, to Morton Brown Saportas, a son of Mrs. R. Brown Saportas, took place yesterday afternoon in the Church of St. Ignatius Loyola. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Lyons in the presence of many prominent members of society, the Newport and Long Island sets being particularly well represented. The bride, who is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Theodore A. Havet Meyer, had for her attendants her sister, Mrs. George H. Hilton Jr., who was her matron of honor, and Mrs. Frederick F. Alexandre, a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes Jr., Mrs. Shannon Lord Many, Miss Audrey Hoffman, Miss Genevieve Cendelin and Miss Margaret L. Schroeder.

Frederick F. Alexandre acted as best man for Mr. Saportas, and the ushers were George A. Saportas Jr., his brother, J. Henry Alexandre, Frederic A. Williams, Nathaniel E. C. Rutter, John M. Ceballos and T. Gaillard Thomas 2d.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Noel, 120 East Eighty-sixth Street. Mrs. Noel, who was Miss Natalie Duncan, is a cousin of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller Dudgeon, became the bride of Marion Whitney Lee, a son of the late Charles Henry Lee, of this city, in the chapel of St. Bartholomew's Church. Owing to the recent death of the bridegroom's father only relatives and a few intimate friends were invited to the wedding and the reception which followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dudgeon, 969 Park Avenue. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by the rector, the Rev. Dr. Leighton Park. The bride was attended by Mrs. Horace Leslie Hotchkiss 3d, Mrs. Harvey Childs 3d and a small flower girl, Elinor Ladd, niece of the bridegroom.

Lowell Mason Lee was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Archibald Dudgeon, brother of the bride; Paul Ingraham, James Madison Blackwell and Stephen Barbut.

Beatrice Nelson a Bride
In St. John's Church, Flushing, L. I., at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Miss Beatrice Berrien Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Nelson, was married to John Butler Rosenquest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Rosenquest, of Westchester. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George W. Edoleson and a reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson. The bride, who is a graduate of the Finch School, wore a gown of white satin and lace, and her only ornament was a platinum harpin set with diamonds, a gift of the bridegroom. She was attended by her sister, Miss Irene Washington, of Brooklyn, as maid of honor; Miss Betty Nixon and Miss Cecile Sisco, of this city. Norman H. Danby served as best man, and the ushers were Norman F. Nelson Jr., a cousin of the bride; Norton Ritchey, and Richard Potter, of Westchester, and Thomas S. Kelly, of New York.

Mr. Rosenquest, who served in the navy during the war, and his bride will live in Minneapolis. She is a great-granddaughter of the late Samuel Gouverneur Orden and a sister of Mrs. Charles Robert Potter, whose husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Clarkson Potter.

Another wedding yesterday was that of Miss Mildred Pauline Sinclair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Sinclair, of 944 Park Avenue, to George S. Runk, of Madison Avenue and Seventy-third Street. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Julius R. Remensnyder, and a reception followed at the Hotel Chatham. Miss Louise de Gogue was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Isabel de Gagne, Miss Mildred James, Miss Isabel McHugh and Miss Gertrude Hoffman. Charles Rohe was Mr. Runk's best man and the ushers were Dr. Howard Reed, James Sinclair Jr., brother of the bride; Emil Schaefer, Henry Mahr, Russell Fay and Helmutti Siebert.

A double wedding took place in the ballroom of the Hotel Gotham at 8 o'clock last evening, when Miss Millie Jean Horton and Miss Dorothy Mae Delafield were married. The former was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Alfred Hafner and the latter to Emory Wales. Miss Millie Jean Horton was married first, the bride being escorted to the altar and given away by her father. She was attended by Miss Alice Hafner, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Beulah Pack, of Lakewood; Miss Hope Robertson, of Brooklyn; Miss Marion Katkin, of Montclair, and Miss Alice Meyer, who took the place of Miss Florence Griffin. Otto Hafner served as his brother's best man and the ushers were Elwood Horton, Kenneth Bernard, Harry Meyer and Max Hoelle.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. Horton escorted his other daughter, Miss Dorothy, to the temporary altar. She was attended by her sister, Miss Beulah Pack, of Lakewood; Miss Winifred Wrigley, Miss Jean Kingsley and Miss Margaret Lindwall. Roger Wales served as his brother's best man, and the ushers were Hugh H. Horton, George Moore, Clinton Frazier and Homer Conroy.

Miss Virginia Snowden Broomall, daughter of Mrs. Henry Lewis Broomall, was married to George Winship Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor, of Baltimore, at noon yesterday in the Church of the Resurrection. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Russell E. Bourne.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Louise Halpin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Olmsted Stearns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Stearns, of Hartford, Conn., will take place on Saturday, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon at St. John's Church, Montclair. Following the ceremony, which will be performed by Bishop Wilson R. Stearns, assisted by the Rev. Luke M. White, rector of the church, there will be a reception to relatives and intimate friends.

Mary E. Willard Wedded in Madrid To Mervyn Herbert

Brilliant Gathering at Nuptials of U. S. Ambassador's Daughter and Secretary of British Embassy

MADRID, June 1.—Mary Elizabeth Willard, daughter of Joseph E. Willard, United States Ambassador to Spain, was married at noon today to Mervyn Herbert, secretary of the British Embassy in Madrid and half brother of the Earl of Carnarvon.

The civil ceremony was performed in the presence of a small but brilliant gathering in the official residence of Premier Alendalaz, the judge of the Buenvista district officiating. The witnesses were the Foreign Minister, Marquis de Lema, the Duke of Alba, Guillermo Osma and the Marquis Narros.

The guests included the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt, the latter also a daughter of Ambassador Willard. Premier Alendalaz, the British Ambassador and also members of the diplomatic corps.

Mrs. Roosevelt was the matron of honor and the daughter of J. C. Dunn, third secretary of the American Embassy, was the flower girl. The best man was the Marquis Narros.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin, with long sleeves and a three-quarter train. The bride wore a corsage bouquet of orange blossoms and also a wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white orchids. The matron of honor and the little flower girl wore white lace.

The presents included a ruby, sapphire and emerald ring, the gift of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria; a Persian rug from Mrs. Roosevelt, which had been given her by the Shah of Persia; an amulet from Guillermo Osma, which originally belonged to the Empress Eugenie, each stone of which is reputed to carry good luck; a piece of old point lace from Lady Carnarvon, a collection of silver from the Countess Casa Valencia, two urns from Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, silver candelabra from Lady Salisbury, a mirror from Princess Metternich, a large lamp from the Marquis de Lema, a Chinese rug from Lady Mary Duckworth and hundreds of other articles, including fans, silverware and jewelry.

After the religious ceremony there was a reception, following which the newly married couple departed on their honeymoon.

Mrs. Harding Entertains
At Third Garden Party

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON, June 1.—Mrs. Harding gave her third and last of a series of garden parties at the White House this afternoon, as on the other two occasions, assuming the form of a garden party. Many out-of-town guests were present from all parts of the country, as well as many of the new Senators and Representatives, who came in on March 4. Leslie M. Shaw, former Secretary of the Treasury, and Mrs. Shaw were among the guests. Mrs. Harding wore a gown of ecru lace over black satin and a large mink hat with feathery plumes.

The President and Mrs. Harding, the Vice-President and Mrs. Coolidge and the Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes were among the members of the Executive family attending a reception which Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Walker gave to-night.

Mrs. Albert B. Fall, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, has returned to Washington from a visit to Havana by way of New York.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes were entertained at dinner to-night by Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Caspar Miller, and a musicale, with additional guests, followed.

The marriage of Theodore P. Noyes to Miss Adelaide Pearce, daughter of Mrs. W. H. Pearce, took place at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Noyes is the son of Theodore W. Noyes, editor of the Evening Star.

The Minister of China entertained at dinner to-night. The Ambassador of Belgium, Baron de Cartier; the Ambassador of Japan, Baron Shidehara, and Lady Geddes, wife of the British Ambassador, were among the guests.
